19 January 1951

Mr. D. J. Benoliel, President
Quaker Chemical Products Corporation
Conshohocken, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Benoliel:

This is in reply to your letter of December 27, 1950, and the accompanying paper entitled "What Should U. S.
Foreign Policy Be?"

Your views, as expressed in that document, will be carefully considered by those in the Government immediately concerned with such matters.

Thank you for your interest in a matter of vital concern to the United States Government and one on which the Government desires to obtain the widest range of opinion.

Sincerely,

James M. Jones
